Blue Streak Review

OCTOBER 12, 1941

CHARLES W. HEATON Editor

Official Souvenir Football Program of John Carroll
University, Published for Each Home Game.

Today's game between the Blue Streaks of John Carroll and the Musketeers of Xavier University, sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organizations and the Knights of Columbus of Cleveland, marks the sixth football meeting of the two schools. The Streaks are still seeking their initial victory, coming closest in their 19-19 tie in the '22 contest.

This is the second clash of Tom Conley, John Carroll mentor, and Clem Crowe, coach of the Xavier team. Both men are exponents of the Notre Dame system of football with variations.

Crowe was the first of his family to attend Notre Dame, captaining the Irish in 1925. He coached St. Vincents before going to Xavier as an assistant in 1932, taking over the head coaching reigns in 1935. This year he is being assisted by his brother Emmett, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1939.

In his series with Carroll, Crowe got off to a flying start last year as his team dumped the Streaks 20-0.

The record of the Carroll-Xavier series:

1920.....	Carroll 0	Xavier 17
1921.....	Carroll 0	Xavier 28
1922.....	Carroll 19	Xavier 19
1923.....	Carroll 9	Xavier 13
1940.....	Carroll 0	Xavier 20

The Musketeers this year have one of the better squads in the State, already holding impressive victories over Georgetown of Kentucky, Butler, and St. Vincents. Two former Cathedral Latin boys are playing a conspicuous part in the success of the Musketeers this year. Chuck "Red" Lavelle at quarter, a senior, is considered by many to be one of the outstanding college signal callers. Mutryn, the Cleveland "butcher boy" is a triple threat, who caused the Streaks plenty of trouble last year and probably will be in their hair again this afternoon.

1941 Schedule

Sept. 27—Western Ontario at London, Canada.

Oct. 4—Baldwin-Wallace at Berea.

Oct. 12—Xavier at the Stadium.

Oct. 18—Toledo at Toledo.

Oct. 25—Case at Shaw.

Nov. 1—Reserve at the Stadium.

Nov. 8—Kent at Kent.

Nov. 20—Akron at Akron.

PROGRESSIVE VISION

WILBUR WRIGHT

Inspired with the possibilities of motor powered sustained flight, after many experiments with gliders, the Wright brothers went to work with the determination to make the flying machine a reality.

Close observation of bird life taught them the secrets of sustained flight.

Excellent knowledge of mechanics, plus bird flight observation, formed the background of their success.

Again progressive vision was responsible for the establishment of a great industry.

Duty, love and loyalty—three priceless possessions of the human heart—parade before our eyes today. We see them in the tensed spectators—graduates, students and friends of rival institutions—gathered round about us. We see them in the marching bands, in the frenzied antics of cheer-leaders, in mascot and scurrying manager, in preoccupied coaches and busy trainers, and in the opposing teams as they huddle before the impatient whistle of the referee scatters them for the opening kick-off of another game.

Time, money and effort are gladly and generously given for "Alma Mater" by hundreds of thousands Americans today because they think they owe it to her, because of their great affection for her, because to her they strive to be faithful and true. Millions tonight will rejoice in victory, millions more will sorrow in defeat, as though something precious and vital had been won or lost. Yet, in a sense, it is all make-believe. Only Americans have the imagination to make a life-and-death struggle out of a football game.

While we enjoy the exciting spectacle of a college gridiron contest in relative peace and security, the world at large witnesses with fear and dread a game being played "for keeps," the senseless, profitless, inhuman game of war. In it the helmets are made of steel, the ends are skirted and the line penetrated by careening armored tanks, and sleek bombers lead the attack by air. In it there is no make-believe victory or defeat. Life, liberty, land, home, everything men cherish is the stake.

Loyalty, love and duty

—three priceless possessions of the human heart—are pulsing strongly through the nation's veins today. There may be confusion and difference of opinion, there may be doubt and indecision, but the spirit which made America free and happy and prosperous among the nations does not falter. Americans do not want war, but they are ready to sacrifice everything to defend their freedom, happiness and prosperity. Loyally they fulfill their obligations to the flag they love.

Loyal sons of Carroll, throughout these United States and in her distant outposts, stand ready to defend their native land. Soldiers, sailors and marines, we are proud of them all. In tropic heat and arctic cold, in the far-flung possessions of the two broad oceans, on land and sea and in the air, men of Carroll guard our liberty. The sane philosophy of life which they assimilated in their college days will steady and strengthen them for a struggle which we pray may never come.

To these stalwart sons John Carroll dedicates these pages. She sent them forth firm in the belief of things worth living for, firm, too, in the belief of things worth dying for. While she taught them the wisdom of peace and the folly of war, she avoided the pitfall of pacifism. In steering their course away from false nationalism, false internationalism and a selfish individualism, she inculcated the fundamental loyalties to home and country which constitute true patriotism. Her proud mother's gaze is dimmed with a mother's tears as she sees her sons, true to the lessons learned at her feet, silhouetted upon the nation's ramparts.

The Carroll Coaches

This marks the sixth grid season for the Conley, Oberst, and Gaul coaching combination at John Carroll. It was in the spring of 1936 that Tom Conley came to Carroll from a coaching position at Notre Dame to take over the directorship of athletics as well as the coaching.

For his assistants Conley selected Gene Oberst, a Notre Dame man of 1924 and Tom's high school coach in Philadelphia, and Frank Gaul, a Notre Dame graduate of 1936.

A Philadelphia boy, Tom Conley, after an impressive high school football and basketball record, went on to Notre Dame to star at end for the Irish, climaxing his college career by captaining the 1931 undefeated National Championship team, the late Knute Rockne's last ball club. Conley then spent two years coaching at La Salle College before returning to Notre Dame in an assistant coaching capacity.

Oberst, a native of Kentucky, opened holes for the Irish backfield that gained fame as the "Four Horsemen." Big Gene also starred in track representing the United States in the 1924 Olympic games in Paris. In addition to coaching at Roman Catholic High in Philly, Oberst has coached at Canisius College in Buffalo, Washington and Lee in Virginia, and DePaul in Chicago.

The youngest member of the staff, Frank Gaul, will coach the Freshman squad this year. His athletic record at Notre Dame embraces football, baseball, and boxing. As a quarterback Frank was noted for his smart signal calling. It was he who called the winning play in that memorable N.D.-State game in 1935.

Here comes that I.T.S. kid — tackle 'im low boys!

That's where he's tough. He's a heel, if there ever was one! Take a squint at those left and right pads of tough rubber on the outer left and right edges, where the wear comes. They stop quickly run-over heels, give you double level wear, save you money. Cushiony rubber that saves your energy, makes pavements soft. Ask your Shoe Repairman for I.T.S Left and Right Heels.

A Tip for the Girl Friend

These I.T.S Tuffies are very thin but very tough, wear level much longer. No scratchy nails, no bulgy heel covers. For smartness, economy and more fun walking, ask for I.T.S Tuffies.

Meet the Sophomores!

The majority of those green and gold clad Carroll gridders out there are familiar figures to Cleveland football fans. Radio announcers and sports writers have been tossing around names like Sheridan, Iacobucci, Veteran, Jacoby, and Yonto for the last two seasons, but today we would like to introduce you to the boys making their Cleveland football debut.

From St. Ignatius High in Cleveland has come a fine passer and the smallest man on the squad. Bob Bixler played three years of varsity football on Cleveland's West Side and was an All-City back as a senior. Probably destined for a spot roll this year, this speedy little tailback is sure to cause some opponent plenty of grief.

Although basketball is his first love, Leo Edward Corr has proven himself a very capable end. He attended St. Francis High in Utica and Irving Prep in Tarrytown, N. Y., winning letters in both basketball and football. Good natured, soft spoken Leo's pass snagging may be one of the Streaks' chief offensive features this year.

Coach Tom Conley has a soft spot in his heart for small ends, remembering his Notre Dame playing days, when at 168 pounds he had to take the tackle alone. Chicago's Bill Dwyer is not too big, but he packs a lot of football ability into his 173 pounds. A rugged boy on defense and a capable receiver, Bill will be in a lot of ball games this year.

The Carroll coaches' fondest dream has come true. They have found a lineman who tops gigantic Gene Oberst, the Streaks' assistant mentor. Tackle Ed Ecker, a St. Ignatius boy, looks down at Oberst from his 6'6", and his 280 pounds more than matches his mentor's weight. The biggest boy in the Cleveland college football, Ed certainly is not going to be pushed around by any of the opposition. He is particularly strong on defense and shows improvement at every practice session.

Some of Carroll's finest athletes have come from the Akron district, and Al Francesconi of Buchtel High is not breaking the tradition. The tallest back on the squad, Al is a good passer and runner and able to play either tailback or quarter. He was captain and All-City as a senior.

KEN KITCHEN
End

South East Catholic High in Philadelphia sent two boys to Carroll last year, Harry Haines and Tom Kennedy. As freshmen their terrific tackling first attracted attention, and they now rate as two of the best defensive men on the squad. Harry, the boy with the Hollywood profile, was a center as a freshman, but was shifted to full last spring to add more drive to the backfield.

Kennedy, who had the high school distinction of captaining his high school team as a junior and senior, is a good runner in addition to his defensive ability.

Jerry Higgins is probably the smallest collegiate center playing football this year, but he is the spark-plug of the Carroll squad. This undersized snapper-back doesn't let his physical limitations keep him from playing heads up ball and making more than his share of tackles from his backer-up spot. Fighting spirit and a great love of football make up for his lack of size. This Conneaut boy is smart, aggressive, and an inspiration to the team.

Not since the days of Bill Scopel have the Streaks had a kicking end, but they have one this year. Lanky Tom Kelley loves to put his toe against that pig-skin and watch it soar, and also does a good offensive and defensive job from his wing post. Tom played for Lenny Brickman at St. Ignatius and captained the Irish in '39.

Broad shouldered, stocky John Scaccuto of John Adams rates as the sophomore's top line prospect. Speedy for his size, he is a big, strong boy who likes the going tough. His hockey playing from a defense post last Winter, gave Carroll followers some idea as to his ability to take it and dish it out.

Joe Vender returned to school twenty pounds heavier this Fall, bringing his weight up to the 200 mark. This Salem High product has all the earmarks of a coming headliner and appears capable of doing a good job of filling the shoes vacated by Sam Marcus. As a junior and senior in high school he was selected on the Columbiana All Stars, captaining the team in '39.

Ken Kitchen comes from a family of athletes. He

Carroll Songs

ONWARD, ON, JOHN CARROLL

On we come, our hearts are tuned to battle
And our hopes all keen for victory;
Well we know that Carroll men ne'er falter
For they're brave and dauntless ever:
Onward, on, for men will mark your courage
And will rise to speak your valor;
Your foes all fear you,
We're here to cheer you.
We're here to see you win the day.

CHORUS

Onward, on, John Carroll,
For we want to see you win,
Gold and Blue;
Onward, on, John Carroll,
On to greater goals and vict'ries new;
Onward, on, John Carroll
For our faith in you
Is boundless and true,
Dear Alma Mater, we're all for you
And for the Gold and Blue!

CARROLL FIGHT SONG

Fight, Carroll, fight,
For the Gold and Blue
For victory's in our right,
And we'll march right thru,
Fight, Carroll, fight,
Until the day is won;
It's the fighting team that conquers,
So, Carroll, fight, fight,
FIGHT.

SONS OF CARROLL

1. Sons of Carroll, gather near her,
Let your joyful anthem ring;
Sound your Mother's praise,
revere her,
Her fair name full proudly sing.
Loyal ever, brave and true,
We, the sons of Carroll U.,
Pledge our love to Alma Mater
To the Gold and Blue.
2. Unto noble conquests guiding,
Kindled she our hearts to strife;
Wisdom taught us, faith-abiding,
Showed us manhood—worth of life.
Grateful hearts we bring to you;
Hail with song our Carroll U.
Long may live our Alma Mater,
Long—the Gold and Blue.

attended Rocky River High, where he played three years of football. Ken has been hampered by injuries this Fall at Carroll, but will be a valuable wing when he gets back in shape.

That's the story on the new Streak gridders. Coming from nine different schools they have quickly assimilated the Carroll traditions and spirit. They have already established themselves in the classroom and on the athletic field as worthy Carroll men.

Smallness in numbers, an even dozen all told, characterizes the Streak sophs this year, but they have brought a new spirit and fire to the Carroll squad. If not this year then next year and the year after, you'll be hearing a lot about these boys.
